ANNUAL FUND GIFTS

Annual Fund contributions provide the Museum with unrestricted resources to develop and maintain world-class exhibits, present educational programs, conduct community outreach efforts, and continue essential day-to-day operations. The Museum gratefully acknowledges the work of the Chair of the Annual Giving Committee, Michael Thonis, for his exceptional service in helping to grow the 2011–2012 Annual Fund.

MIXING GIFTS

The Museum is grateful for the many contributions from companies that matched gifts by their employees this past year. Matching gifts often double or triple a donation and many companies match gifts of retirees, an employee’s spouse, and corporate board members. Your employer’s human resources office is the place to inquire if you might qualify.

Washburn Society
The Washburn Society honors Brad and Barbara Washburn and recognizes the many generous individuals, past and present, who have included the Museum in their wills and estate plans, or who have otherwise entered into life income arrangements with the Museum. The lives of our future scientists and engineers will be greatly enriched thanks to the foresight and generosity of these dedicated individuals.

Bequests
A bequest is a special way of demonstrating faith in the mission and ideals found at the Museum. Bequests also afford opportunities to create perpetual memorials for the maintenance of vital programs and for endowed funds to assure continued excellence. The Museum is forever indebted to the following individuals for remembering its work through their estates.

Francis T. Colby Trust
The late Mr. and Mrs. Alvar Polk Jr.
Frank W. West Trust
The late Stetson Whitcher
The late Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Wilson

TRIBUTE GIFTS
Tribute gifts to the Museum of Science both honor someone special and benefit those whose lives are touched by the Museum. Tribute gifts will be used where the need is greatest within the Museum or may be directed to benefit a particular program or department. Each gift will be thoughtfully acknowledged, as will the individual or family of the individual being honored. The Museum is grateful to the many donors who chose to honor the following friends or loved ones through gifts to the Museum.
