Use the Venn diagram below to compare and contrast two animals or objects that you find in the Museum.

Object 1: ______________________

Object 2: ______________________

What questions do you have about these objects? _________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________